

Jean Coker
Jean C. Coker, P.A.
Jacksonville, Florida

Fellow, American College of Trust and Estate Counsel
Florida Bar Board Certified in Wills, Trusts and Estate Law
Martindale Hubbel AV-Pre-eminent attorney
Florida Super Lawyer

Wake Forest University, B.A. in political science (minors in history, math, and Latin)
Duke University Law School, J.D.
University of Florida, LLM in Taxation

Specializing in personalized estate planning services, including:

- ~ the drafting of wills, trusts, and other estate planning documents for clients ranging from individuals with modest estates to those with substantial assets and sophisticated estate planning needs
- ~ the administration and income taxation of estates and trusts.

Other interests:

- ~ 2 daughters, 2 grandchildren, 2 bernese mountain dogs, and 2 rescue cockatiels
- ~ Scottish research from the 15th to the 19th centuries including family-related court cases:
  - ... a 1626 murder
  - ... a graphically detailed 1747 divorce, and
  - ... an 1806-1846 contested will contest between daughter of first marriage and dad's newly-married second wife regarding the inheritance rights of the children from first marriage in the 1769 prenup against the newly married young second wife's rights to the last will signed a month before his death . . . just like litigation of some second marriages today, combined with the outcome of Dickens' Bleak House!